DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/23/10 has been entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement(s) (IDS) submitted on 12/14/10 has been received and made of record. Note the acknowledged form PTO-1449 enclosed herewith.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 71-82 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 5,662,671 to Barbut et al. and in view of US 5,491,896 to Kerr.

(Claims 71, 75 and 79) Barbut discloses a distal protection device, as shown in Fig. 20, comprising:

a tube 50 having a lumen capable of receive the guidewire (col. 19, ll. 42-44);

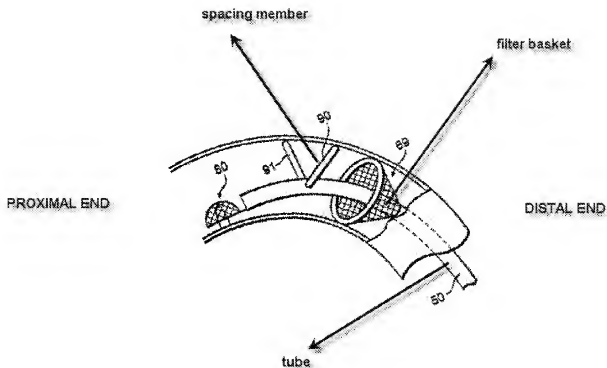

a filter basket 69 connected to the tube, the filter basket having a closed distal end and an open proximal end; and a spacing member (90 or 91) connected to the tube and positioned proximally of the proximal end of the filter basket (see illustrated figure below), the spacing member capable of maintaining the proximal end of the filter basket in an opened configuration when the device is deployed within the vessel, wherein the spacing member is in the form of a wire structure.

Barbut discloses the use of a guidewire, as mentioned above, but is silent with regards to the arrangement of the guidewire on the tube. Kerr discloses a similar distal protection device comprising a guidewire 212 that is positioned within tube 202. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the guidewire be located within the tube as it would help guide the tube to the desired location.

(Claims 72, 73, 76, 77, 80 and 81) The tube of Barbut, as modified by Kerr, is fully capable of some degree of rotation along the guidewire since the guidewire will be located unattached within the lumen of the tube.

(Claims 74, 78 and 82) As seen in the figure above, structure 80 can also be viewed as the guidewire, which is fixed to the tube.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 71-82 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
